

VAIDY ARRIVES FOR TLT WITH LOCAL PASSERS

Initial Big League Basketball Game of 1920-1921 Season To Be Played in Y. M. C. A. Gymnasium.

THE LINEUP.

Memphis Y. Vanderbilt.
Mace...Forward...Kuhn
Sherman...Forward...Bell
Blackburn...Center...Thomas
Perry...Guard...Morrow
McCabe...Guard...Gleaves

The bid will be officially lifted upon the 1920-1921 basketball season Tuesday night at the Y. M. C. A. when the Memphis "Y" quintet, one of the strongest basketball teams in the South, will clash with Vanderbilt, also boasting of a strong array of passers. The game will get under way at 8:15 o'clock, and a tussle for the book is expected.

There is keen rivalry between Vandy and the Bluff Citizens, and there isn't going to be a dull moment during the game, for every possible effort is going to be made to win by both sides. The Commodores were beaten upon their last appearance in Memphis, which was in 1919, and they are going into Tuesday night's battle with the avowed determination to wipe out the stain of that defeat by completely routing the Memphisans.

Coach Gleaves of the Bluff City array, says he is confident that his team will be able to come away with the long end of the score, and that Vandy will be trimmed by at least 10 points.

How They Start.

Coach Gleaves has his regulars and subs primed to the minute, and will start the game with his strongest formation. Mace and Sherman will be at the forward positions, with Blackburn at center, and with Capt. Perry and Willis McCabe at the guards.

R. L. Sullivan, former Ole Miss football coach, and one of the greatest basketball referees in the country, will serve in the opening night game, which is sufficient assurance that everything will pass off as it should. Sullivan knows how to handle a basketball game, and the points he has made in his career because of his expert officiating.

The curtain will go up at 8:15 o'clock, and a big crowd is anticipated.

Dallas To Give Indians $7,500 To Train There

CHICAGO, Dec. 28.—The Dallas (Texas) club of commerce is to pay the Cleveland world's champion baseball team $7,500 to train in that city under terms of a contract made by Manager Tris Speaker and announced by President Dean Sweeney today. In turn the champions are to donate to the city the proceeds of one exhibition game to be played on a week day.

The use of the grounds of the Dallas club for conditioning and practice games is assured the Indians on a 50-50 basis. Because Dallas is a railroad center it may be possible, President Dunn said, to arrange some remunerative exhibition games with but little traveling.

BOXING GAME TO UNDERGO REFORMS

(By International News Service.)
NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—Delegates appointed by the governors of 18 states will meet here Jan. 10, 11 and 12 at the offices of the International Sporting Union to discuss reforms in boxing and control professional boxing. It was announced today.

The new body is against big purses and the filming of boxing contests and aims to co-operate with the national board of control of other countries with the idea of creating a world-wide code for the control of the game.

The states that will be represented are: New York, New Jersey, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, Maryland, Connecticut, Colorado, Wisconsin, Montana, Minnesota, Oregon, West Virginia, Louisiana, Washington, Florida, Tennessee and Oklahoma.

HARD PRACTICE FOR FOOTBALL ELEVEN

PASADENA, Cal., Dec. 28.—Hard, snappy practice was the program yesterday of the football squads from Ohio State university and the University of California, here preparing for the annual East vs. West contest at Tournament park, on New Year's day.

DRAWINGS FOR TOURNEY.

AUCKLAND, N. Z., Dec. 28.—Announcement was made today of the drawings for play in the Davis cup tennis matches for the Davis cup which will begin today. In the singles today Norman E. Brookes, of the Australian team, will meet T. Tilden, the world's singles champion, and Gerald L. Patterson, Australian, will play Wm. M. Johnston, the California expert.

On Wednesday Brookes and Patterson will play against Johnston and Tilden in the doubles and on Thursday Brookes will meet Johnston and Patterson will play Tilden in the singles.

RICHARDS STARRING.

(By International News Service.)
NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—Vincent Richards, of Yonkers, N. Y., champion of the junior ladies' tennis division for two years, is the star of the annual national tennis tournament in progress here at the Seventh regiment armory. Richards is favored to win the title for a third time. The boys' national junior tournament is being played in conjunction with that of the juniors.

DICK BURRUS SOLD.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 28.—Dick Burrus, first baseman recruited by the Philadelphia American league club from Columbia, S. C. two years ago, has been sold outright to the Columbus club of the American association.

PITT HOCKEYISTS COP.

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 28.—The Pittsburgh team of the United States Amateur Hockey association defeated the University of Toronto team here Monday, 3 to 2.

AUCKLAND, New Zealand, Dec. 28.—The first match in the challenge round of the Davis cup tennis tournament, which was to have been played today, has been postponed until tomorrow, owing to rain.

BRINGING UP FATHER—By George McManus

Copyright 1921 by International News Service.

LEE IS VICTORIOUS OVER LOCAL MIDGET

Chinese Bantamweight Wins Referee's Decision Over Young Jack Dempsey After Eight Hard Rounds—Both Score Knockdowns—Chink to Meet Pal Moore.

BY BOB PIGUE.

After eight rounds of the fastest milling local fight fans have witnessed in many weeks, George Lee, of San Francisco, said to be the only Chinese boxer extant, won the referee's decision over Young Jack Dempsey, a home-grown bantamweight, at the Southern Athletic club Monday night. Young Dempsey contested the bout from bell to bell, and at the finish he was getting stronger. Lee showed a world of speed and aggressiveness, possessing a left hand that was his most valuable asset in carving out a victory over the local son. Referee Haack's decision awarding the verdict to Lee was a popular one, as Lee was clearly the victor.

The Celestial, who defeated Dempsey one of the toughest opponents he has gone up against in quite a while, Lee figured Dempsey a set-up, but discovered as early as the opening session that he was in for a busy evening.

All the way Dempsey met Lee's rushes with left and rights, and made a game effort to stem the tide of the jaw with a left hook that Dempsey was piling up, but it was a case of Dempsey being outclassed. But he wasn't outclassed. He took all the Celestial had, and was going strong when the final bell sounded. Dempsey proved to his myriad admirers Monday night that he has the stuff in him to be a contender for the bantam championship within another year or so.

THE FIGHT BY ROUNDS

Round 1—Even.
Round 2—Lee.
Round 3—Even.
Round 4—Dempsey.
Round 5—Lee.
Round 6—Lee.
Round 7—Lee.
Round 8—Dempsey.

and did it well. He has the delivery of a Patrick Henry, his diction was perfect and he delivered his lines in a manner that would have done credit to Fritz Liebler in "Julius Caesar." The best part of it was that Coyle failed to pull his famous "Say" gag.

MINORS AGAINST NEW AGREEMENT

Can't See Arrangement Has Been Made With Major Leagues.

CHICAGO, Dec. 28.—Continued opposition to the agreement between major and minor baseball league, remained today by George H. Maines, president of the Michigan-Ontario league, after a conference with A. R. Turney, president of the Western league, and President Maines predicted that the minor league association at its meeting Jan. 10 would not ratify the proposed agreement for the government of organized baseball.

MONDAY NIGHT'S BOXING RESULTS

(By International News Service.)
AT NEW YORK—Johnny Roemer won a decision over Mickey Nelson, 12 rounds.
AT NEW HAVEN—Louis Bogash scored a technical knockout over Sammy Good when the referee stopped the bout in the fifth round.
AT BOSTON—Johnny Clinton defeated Johnny Downey when the bout was stopped by the referee in the sixth round.

BALL PLAYER DIES.

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 28.—Word was received here today of the death yesterday at Frostburg, Md., of Joseph Preppy, of Pittsburgh, a well-known baseball player. Preppy was a south-left-handed pitcher. He had been in the major leagues for several seasons in the old Pennsylvania, Ohio and Maryland leagues.

M'KECHNIE SOLD.

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 28.—Bill McKechnie has been released by the Pittsburgh National league baseball club to the Minneapolis team of the American association. It became known here today.

The Boston Braves, it is stated, will do their spring training at Galveston. The jump from Galveston to the Boston Braves is a very long one, but it is a very long one, and it is a very long one.

Officials of the Wichita Falls club deny the reports sent from Galveston that they offered $50,000 to Galveston for First Abseam Dutch Schiedner. No sum of money was offered for the player, it is stated.

George Cochran, who played third base for the Kansas City Blues in 1919, but who refused to join the team last season, has agreed to play in 1921. He has been carried on the Kansas City suspended list.

Report at the New York baseball meetings was that Roger Bresnahan had landed Catcher Arthur Wilson from the Boston Braves and would install him as manager of the Toledo team next season.

The Oklahoma City club of the Western association that has signed a third baseman named Ben White, who has been playing independent ball at Tucson, Ariz.

Bobby Vaughn has resigned as manager of the Tacoma team of the Pacific International league. Bert Graham, first baseman of the team, probably will be his successor.

CHAMP'S FIGHTING FACE PETE MUSSUED HIM UP

JOE LYNCH.

Here's the way Joe Lynch, new bantamweight champion, looked as he came out of the ring following his bout with Pete Herman for the title. Looks like Joey had to extend himself, doesn't it? And that Pete mussued Joe up a little bit. However, what's worth having is worth fighting for, according to Joe's way of looking at things, and he's satisfied.

Dempsey Cannot Be Classed As An Overrated Fighter

Great Record of Ring Achievements Offset Tendency of Public Criticism for Long Brennan Bout—May Have Had Another Motive.

BY CHARLES F. MATHISON.
(In New York Herald.)
As a result of Dempsey's indifferent performance against Brennan last Tuesday night, a disposition to characterize the champion as an overrated boxer has manifested itself. Strangely enough, these utterances come for the most part from those who had overestimated him in the past.

Classed objections of the minor leagues, as expressed by Mr. Maines, are that the agreement for 25 years covers too long a period; that the minors would have little influence in the settlement of questions in which they are vitally interested; and that they would have no voice in the selection of a successor for Judge Landis after the expiration of his seven years as commissioner.

It is a reasonable proposition that a champion's status is established by his performance against the best boxers of the period in which he holds title. Judged on that basis, Dempsey must be conceded to possess remarkable ability, for he has shown overwhelming superiority over the best heavyweights of his time. Then comes the charge that Dempsey's opponents have been pugilists of equal ability, and that he has shown overconfidence in his own power.

There is no doubt that Dempsey is a champion, and that he has shown overwhelming superiority over the best heavyweights of his time. Then comes the charge that Dempsey's opponents have been pugilists of equal ability, and that he has shown overconfidence in his own power.

It is impossible to arrive at an accurate conclusion as to the comparative merits of the heavyweights of a quarter of a century ago and the men of the present time. There is no doubt that Dempsey is a champion, and that he has shown overwhelming superiority over the best heavyweights of his time.

There is no doubt that Dempsey is a champion, and that he has shown overwhelming superiority over the best heavyweights of his time. Then comes the charge that Dempsey's opponents have been pugilists of equal ability, and that he has shown overconfidence in his own power.

There is no doubt that Dempsey is a champion, and that he has shown overwhelming superiority over the best heavyweights of his time. Then comes the charge that Dempsey's opponents have been pugilists of equal ability, and that he has shown overconfidence in his own power.

There is no doubt that Dempsey is a champion, and that he has shown overwhelming superiority over the best heavyweights of his time. Then comes the charge that Dempsey's opponents have been pugilists of equal ability, and that he has shown overconfidence in his own power.

There is no doubt that Dempsey is a champion, and that he has shown overwhelming superiority over the best heavyweights of his time. Then comes the charge that Dempsey's opponents have been pugilists of equal ability, and that he has shown overconfidence in his own power.

There is no doubt that Dempsey is a champion, and that he has shown overwhelming superiority over the best heavyweights of his time. Then comes the charge that Dempsey's opponents have been pugilists of equal ability, and that he has shown overconfidence in his own power.

There is no doubt that Dempsey is a champion, and that he has shown overwhelming superiority over the best heavyweights of his time. Then comes the charge that Dempsey's opponents have been pugilists of equal ability, and that he has shown overconfidence in his own power.

There is no doubt that Dempsey is a champion, and that he has shown overwhelming superiority over the best heavyweights of his time. Then comes the charge that Dempsey's opponents have been pugilists of equal ability, and that he has shown overconfidence in his own power.

There is no doubt that Dempsey is a champion, and that he has shown overwhelming superiority over the best heavyweights of his time. Then comes the charge that Dempsey's opponents have been pugilists of equal ability, and that he has shown overconfidence in his own power.

There is no doubt that Dempsey is a champion, and that he has shown overwhelming superiority over the best heavyweights of his time. Then comes the charge that Dempsey's opponents have been pugilists of equal ability, and that he has shown overconfidence in his own power.

There is no doubt that Dempsey is a champion, and that he has shown overwhelming superiority over the best heavyweights of his time. Then comes the charge that Dempsey's opponents have been pugilists of equal ability, and that he has shown overconfidence in his own power.

There is no doubt that Dempsey is a champion, and that he has shown overwhelming superiority over the best heavyweights of his time. Then comes the charge that Dempsey's opponents have been pugilists of equal ability, and that he has shown overconfidence in his own power.

WAITE HOYT IS NOW MEMBER OF N. Y. YANKEES

Ex-Chick Pitcher Passes From Boston Red Sox to Huggins' Crew—Was Overworked While With Memphis.

Waite Hoyt has gone back to Greater New York. The Brooklyn lad, who as the star pitcher of the Erasmus ball team was signed by John J. McGraw, was shifted to the minors and then came back and made an enviable record for himself in the big time circuit, was recently traded by Harry A. Frazer, of the Boston Red Sox with three other players to the New York Yankees.

Hoyt has been called one of the most promising right-handers in the American league and although he has only just turned 21 he has been taking his turn on the mound for the Red Sox with the veterans and has been handling in a good share of the wins, despite the fact that he is the youngest twirler in either league.

Boston, it must be admitted, was dubious as to Hoyt's future, for last year he was put out of the running in midseason when he seriously strained an abdominal muscle. His youthful vitality carried him through the ordeal in good shape, however, and toward the close of the season he was as effective a pitcher as could be found on the Red Sox staff.

The impression seems to be that Huggins will keep Hoyt in more or less of an experimental stage for some time until he shows that he has completely recovered from his injury.

It was while playing on Brooklyn last year that Hoyt first broke into the limelight. His sensational pitching for the Wyandotte club won him the Junior League pennant in 1914, and again in 1915, when the aggregation did not win the pennant.

While under the tutelage of Christy Mathewson and Jeff Torreau he began to show real stuff. He was not quite big league caliber yet, so McGraw lent him to Artie Devlin, who was running the Lebanon club in the Pennsylvania league. While under Devlin's able hand Hoyt went a 19-inning game, losing in the last frame, but displaying remarkable skill.

From Devlin's camp he was shifted to the Memphis club of the Southern league. Here he was plainly overworked and was shipped back to McGraw labeled "S. G. G." (Sore Gums).

He had faith in the boy and shipped him up to the Rochester club of the International league. With this club he did fairly well. Then he was called on to make a journey to join the service. Refused by the army and by the tank corps he joined the S. A. T. C. at Middlebury college. Later he secured a job at the Baltimore dry dock and twirled for that team in the shipyard league. It was from there that the Red Sox signed him.

The Brooklyn club became involved in some three-cornered litigation in 1919, his first year on the Red Sox, between New Orleans, Rochester and Boston, but the Italian champion was awarded him to the Sox. From then on all was clear sailing. He took his regular turn on the mound and won enough games to look like a real goods.

He has since developed into a big, rangy pitcher.

GIANTS COMPLETE SPRING TRAINING PLANS

NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—Part of the itinerary of the New York Nationals spring training trip after leaving their training camp at San Antonio, Tex., has been made public by Secretary J. O'Brien. The Giants expect to practice only a little more than two weeks at the camp and then proceed to India for two games with the Cleveland world's champions on March 18 and 20. Games will be played with the New Orleans, Southern Association club, in New Orleans, March 25 and 27, and it is probable that the Giants will make a one-week stay at some other Southern association city before going North for a final trip with the Washington Americans.

Roy Moore Subs For Pal Against Jack Sharkey

NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—Roy Moore, of St. Paul, has been substituted for Pal Moore of Memphis, as the opponent of Jack Sharkey, of New York, in a 15-round bout at Madison Square garden tomorrow night. The Memphis boxer notified the management that he was ill.

FREDDIE WELSH IN COMEBACK ROLE

NEWARK, N. J., Dec. 28.—Freddie Welsh, who retired from the boxing ring after losing the world's heavyweight title to Benny Leonard in 1917, will attempt a "comeback" here tonight in a 12-round bout with Willie Green, of Boston.

FOOTBALL CAPTAINS FOR 1921 SEASON

College Captains, Position.
Amherst—Al Davidson, end.
Army—F. M. Green, center.
Auburn—Francis Stubbie, quarterback.
Bates—T. W. Kelley, halfback.
Bethany—Pius G. Dunn, halfback.
Boston—Eric O'Hare, halfback.
Brown—George C. Johnston, tackle.
Butler—William Kiser, guard.
Baker University—Warren Rice, halfback.
Baldwin-Wallace—H. Warner, fullback.
California—Howard Linger, tackle.
Carnegie Tech—Al Irwin, center.
Case—W. W. Kelley, center.
Centre—Norris Armstrong, halfback.
Chicago—Charles McGuire, tackle.
Cincinnati—R. F. Croley, halfback.
Citadel—Gambrell, tackle.
Colgate—Robert Webster, halfback.
Colorado—Howard Linger, tackle.
Columbia—Francis Scott, tackle.
Cornell—Wilson S. Dodge, tackle.
Dartmouth—Jim Cullen, halfback.
Dickinson—Jack Pippa, halfback.
Fordham—Sylvester Fitzpatrick, end.
Georgetown—John A. Marvin, quarterback.
Georgia Tech—Harian, fullback.
Hawaii—Grover Evans, end.
Hamilton—George R. Sargent, tackle.
Harvard—R. Keith Kane, end.
Haverford—Nathan Sangree, quarterback.
Holy Cross—Denise O'Neil, center.
Idaho—Grover Evans, end.
Illinois—Lawrence Wagner, halfback.
Indiana—John Kyle, fullback.
Iowa—Aubrey Devine, halfback.
Kentucky—James Zeyer, tackle.
Lafayette—Joe Lebeck, tackle.
Lehigh—Ray McCarthy, guard.
Michigan—R. J. Dundas, end.
Marietta—John Robinson, fullback.
Mass. Agric.—George A. Cotton, tackle.
Michigan State—F. M. Green, center.
Minnesota—Lawrence Wagner, halfback.
Missouri—Herbert Blume, tackle.
Mt. Union—Herman Snyder, guard.
Nebraska—C. E. Swanson, end.
Nebraska—C. E. Swanson, end.
N. H. State—S. T. Connor, halfback.
N. Y. U.—J. T. Ferguson, quarterback.
Northwestern—J. Hathaway, center.
Oglethorpe—Knox, fullback.
Pennsylvania—William J. Crow, center.
Phillips Exeter—J. F. Daly, end.
Phillips Exeter—J. F. Daly, end.
Pittsburgh—Tom Davies, halfback.
Purdue—E. R. Carson, tackle.
Rensselaer Poly—E. C. Eiler, quarterback.
Rochester—J. T. Sullivan, quarterback.
Sewanee—Conway, end.
South Carolina—Gressett, fullback.
St. Louis—U. C. Finnegan, end.
Stevens Tech—Frank Busch, tackle.
Swarthmore—Carl Geiges, quarterback.
Syracuse—Carl Geiges, quarterback.
Tulane—Dwyer, halfback.
Union—J. H. Murray, end.
Vanderbilt—Harry Warner, tackle.
Villanova—Joseph McCarthy, center.
Virginia—H. Rinehart, halfback.
Virginia Poly—George Farley, end.
Wash. and Jeff.—Russet Stein, tackle.
Wesleyan—E. M. Newhall, fullback.
Westminster—Joe Dismann, fullback.
West Virginia—Robert Kay, tackle.
Williams—E. A. Fargo, tackle.
Yale—Malcolm Aldrich, halfback.

FOOTBALL CHANGES LIKELY TO BE MADE

Athletic Officials Gather in Chicago, for Important Conference.

CHICAGO, Dec. 28.—Conferences of athletic officials of various Middle West, Eastern and Southern institutions in session here this week may change the tenor of intercollegiate athletics next year. The first meeting will be held today by the Athletic Research society.

On Wednesday the Intercollegiate Athletic association will discuss proposed changes in football rules. The elimination of the goal kick after touchdowns and the suppression of the forward pass have been talked of. Barring of distance penalties within 10 yards of the goal line except for intentional roughness sufficient to cause a player out of the game has also been suggested.

Reports of athletic committees and the subject of the national track meet, now in the hands of the executive committee, will be considered on Wednesday.

The annual session of college gymnasium directors is scheduled for Thursday.

COBB TO BE DINED BY TIGER MAGNATES

DETROIT, Dec. 28.—Definite word has been received from Ty Cobb that he would be in Detroit the latter part of January to be the guest of honor at a banquet celebrating his acceptance of the management of the Tigers. Plates for 600 are planned. Special invitations have been sent men high in baseball and political circles, including President Johnson, of the American league, President Heydler, of the National Michigan's congressmen, Gov.-elect Groesbeck and Mayor Cousin.

CENTRE ELEVEN IN FT. WORTH FOR GAME.

PORT WORTH, Tex., Dec. 28.—The Centre college football team, which will play T. C. U. Saturday, arrived here today. Coach Charles Moran and Athletic Director Myers are in charge of the squad.

After-Xmas Reductions On All Our Suits and Overcoats

M. SCHONBERGER
Master Clothes Builder
62 North Main Street

Burglar and Fire Proof Safes

Desks, Filing Cabinets, Sectional Bookcases, Office Stationery, Twinlock Loose-Leaf Ledgers.
A. R. TAYLOR COMPANY
OFFICE OUTFITTERS. 46 SOUTH MAIN STREET.

BALTON & SONS SIGNS

PHONE MAIN 1867
118 MONROE AVE.

We Don't Use Big Ads

Because the Values In Our SUITS AND OVERCOATS Talk Loud Enough. You Can't Beat 'Em At $29.95 For Twice the Money Elsewhere.

The 999 Clothing Co.

MORRIS GEISTEL
182 South Main Street Corner Main and Beale